Kiwanis Leadership Society

Our Kiwanis International Foundation helps deserving groups and individuals through the generosity of others. Without valued Foundation contributors, the following would not be possible:

Montana District, Children of Peace International

Orphanage Expansion Project: To expand an orphanage near the coast of South Central Vietnam to accommodate 200 additional children and to create education facilities, which more than 400 children will use.

Kiwanis Foundation of Panama: Matched by the Kiwanis Club of Panama, this grant provides monetary assistance for high school scholarships, medicines and vitamins for children, a hospital and community medical center, and many other activities.

Alabama District Foundation, Jean Dean Reading is

Fundamental Program: Provides quality, age-appropriate books to at-risk young children ages 0-5. Children select up to three books to have in their home. The program serves more than 25,000-plus at-risk young children in 533 sites in Head Starts, Even Starts, state-sponsored daycare facilities, state early intervention centers, daycare homes, housing projects, and some primary schools in every county in Alabama, including several sites in Missouri and Nebraska.

Kidz First Children's Hospital and the New Zealand-

South Pacific District of Kiwanis International: A matching grant providing needed financial assistance to the Burns Unit of the Kidz First Hospital. New Zealand, New Caledonia, French Polynesia, Vanuatu, and other South Pacific children will benefit from the grant.

Kiwanis Carolinas District with the Kiwanis Family Care

Center: Grant will provide nine private rooms for parents of Neonatal Intensive Care Unit (NICU) babies to be with their newborn children during hospitalization.

Why Contribute?

Individuals become part of the Kiwanis Leadership Society for good reason.

- It's a popular way to recognize the accomplishments and service of family, friends, and fellow Kiwanians.
- This distinguished group assists the Kiwanis International Foundation with its charitable work, supporting projects and programs beyond the financial capability of a club, division, or district.
- Many Kiwanis clubs, divisions, and districts utilize the Kiwanis Leadership Society recognition to honor charter members, out-going club presidents or officers, lieutenant governors, governors, and other deserving individuals.
